

2010-2011 freshmen housing deposits-- CoVA Residential Schools Self-Reporting via VACUHO list-serv query (3.3.10)

#	School	deposit amount?	part of/combined w/enrollment deposit?	separate housing app fee?	housing app active before deposit?	notes
1	Christopher Newport University	$250	no	no	no
2	Eastern Mennonite University	$0	yes; $300 "tuition deposit"	no	no; must first pay tuition deposit	we have a roommate match program that keeps track of when they paid their tuition deposit along with their housing requests. I use this to determine who will be coming, who gets matched and then where they are placed.
3	Emory & Henry College	$150	yes; $150 is part of $400 ED	no	no	Must receive admissions deposit before housing forms/contract are sent to the student.
4	Ferrum College	$0	yes; $200 "confirmation deposit"	no	no; not housed w/out confirmation deposit
5	James Madison University	$0	yes; $250 "admission deposit" allows housing	no	no (see notes)	Students must first pay the admission deposit before they can even complete the housing application. Once they pay the admission deposit AND then complete the application, it is at that point that we consider them active.
6	Liberty University	$0	no	no	no (see notes)	All incoming freshmen must be first "full financially checked-in." This means, room, board, tuition and fees with a plan in place to handle the whole bill, student loans, scholarships, plus loans, payment plan...
7	Longwood University	$0	yes; $400 ED	no	no	Continuing students pay an annual tuition deposit ($250.00) in order to participate in the class registration process for the next academic year.
8	Norfolk State University	$300	no; separate "enrollment fee" required	no	no
9	Old Dominion University	$250	no	no; $50 of $250 is embedded app fee	no	$200 enrollment deposit also required
10	Randolph College	$0	yes; $300 ED	no	no (see notes)	all students required to live on-campus so no housing/dining contract fees needed
11	Regnt University	$350	no	no	no	aspirant residents must pay at time of application (via card or online check payment)
12	Richard Bland College	$500	no; separate ED required	no	no	application is not considered "complete" until the deposit is paid. Since we prioritize assignments primarily based on when an application is complete, an application without a deposit is kept separate and not entered on the to-be-assigned list until the deposit is paid.
13	Shenandoah University	$0	yes; combined with $300 advanced tuition payment	no	no	The advanced tuition deposit has to be received before we house the student
14	Southern Virginia University	$250	no; separate $250 registration deposit required	no	no
15	Sweet Briar College	$0	yes; $500 enrollment deposit	no; $500 includes $75 refunded upon move-out	yes	students may bring deposit ($500) to summer orientation w/them
16	U.Va - Wise	$150 before 5/1; $250 after 5/1 ("pre-payment fee")	no; charged separate by admissions	no; just a the $150/$250 pre-payment fee	no (see notes)	All students must have the housing application and pre-payment before they are placed in housing. We will accept just the application but will hold it until the pre-payment is made.
17	University of Mary Washington	$200	yes; $200 is part of $500 ED	no	no
18	University of Virginia	$0	yes; $250 "admission fee"	no	no	applications for housing not active until "admission fee" confirmed as rec'd
19	Virginia Tech	$0	yes; $100 of $400 "matriculation fee" is for HSNB	no; freshmen required to live in housing	no (see notes)	We do contracts, not applications. We don't allow students to complete contracts until they are accepted and have accepted the offer (as shown by payment of the matriculation charge).
20	William & Mary	$200	yes; $200 is part of $350 "admission deposit"	no; freshmen required to live in housing	no (see notes)	Once the deposit is paid an "application" is created for them and they are able to complete their roommate questionnaire. We house all the freshmen even if they choose not to complete the roommate questionnaire.
