

Bulletin Board Information from Spring 2010

Institution	BB required?	Frequency changed	Restrictions	Due date	Other notes
Lynchburg College	Yes	Monthly	Must be focused on 1 of 6 prescribed educational topics	Unknown
UVA at Wise	Yes	Monthly	Topic chosen by professional staff for entire campus	First business day of the month	Boards must be educational and sources must be cited
UVA	No	N/A	N/A	N/A	Bulletin Boards banned by fire marshall. Community bathrooms have a newsletter posted in prominent locations.
William & Mary	Yes	Monthly	No restrictions on content although appropriate taste is encouraged. Supervisors follow up as necessary.	Unknown	Success of boards is attributed to the Programming Resource Center
Regent University	Yes	Monthly	Any content that is detrimental to the University is not permitted	Unknown	Student staff report being pleased with the ability to raise awareness of social issues through the boards.
Randolph-Macon College	Yes	Monthly	Educational boards are focused on themes provided by professional staff	Unknown	Occasional challenges are incorporated to liven up student's bulletin boards - using fabric or recycled material are examples
Longwood University - On Campus	Yes	Monthly	Each supervisor sets content restrictions as needed	First Monday of the month
Longwood University - Off Campus	No	N/A	N/A	N/A	Apartment RA's are required to create "door-hangers." These items are small bulletin board like passive programming opportunities that hang on each resident's apartment door.
Randolph College	Yes	Monthly	4 per semester around the educational requirements for programming	Unknown	RA's have an elaborate rotation method. They start with 3 boards and change 2 every month. Also, only allowed 1 scribble board a semester.
Christopher Newport University	Yes	Monthly	Educational in nature, closing related at end of semester	Unknown	East campus (apartment style) only does a bulletin board at the beginning of the semester. Monthly newsletters are utilized instead.
Ferrum College	Yes	Monthly	Boards are prepared by professional staff and then student staff post the content	Unknown	Extra boards are used for decorations or flyer postings