

2010 Spring Occupancy Rates-- CoVA Residential Schools Self-Reporting via VACUHO list-serv query (2.3.10)

#	School	SP10 Occupancy Rate	Trend?	Comments
1	Christopher Newport University	99%	upward	up from 93% for SP09
2	Hampden-Sydney College	96.70%	slight downward	down from 98% for SP09
3	Longwood University	97%	slight downward
4	Lynchburg College	93%	neutral
5	Marymount University	89%	neutral
6	Norfolk State University	94%	neutral
7	Radford University	93%	no comparison given
8	Randolph-Macon College	96%	upward	We actually have some rooms that we needed to triple to accommodate everyone
9	Regent University	96.80%	slight downward	actual bedspaces is higher due to addition of undergrad res hall
10	Richard Bland College	81%	huge upward swing	up from 51% occupancy for SP09
11	Roanoke College	85%	huge downward swing
12	University of Mary Washington	96%	slight upward	up from 95% for SP09
13	University of Virginia	96.10%	upward	Overall we have seen an upward trend in occupancy this year
14	University of Virginia-- Wise	85%	neutral	% is down because we just opened a new residence hall in August
15	Virginia Tech	96.70%	slight downward	we are also down several hundred beds with the capital renewal project in Ambler Johnston; even with last year at opening
16	Virginia Wesleyan College	92%	upward	up from 87% for SP09
17	William & Mary	96.60%	downward

average of above 17 schools = 93%